

Year of the Rat

Directions, Challenges & Solutions

3) NORTH – Usable area when balanced, even though “Star of Arguments”

Use the room/space only as needed - Keep it QUIET (no video games or loud music)

I’m guided to say written AFFIRMATIONS and PRAYERS work best here.

Avoid adding Metal Element (all metals, white and round-shaped objects) plus avoid adding Water Element (water, blues, wavy-shaped objects) to the area. Actually, if you can, you might want to remove some of the water pictures or features.

Modern Cures (You only need to add ONE of these to the area. More is not necessary, but okay if you want): Add Fire Element through the use of candles, bright lights, the color red, triangle- and pyramid-shaped objects.

Side note: A Red Quan Yin represents “Peace & Compassion” (consider using this item as a symbol of your desires).

Traditional Cures: Red Tassels, Red Quan Yin, Red Laughing Buddha, 12-Coin Ball with a Red Ribbon.

If the front door is in this direction: First, oil the hinges; Second, place a Ba-Gua mirror (or 8-sided mirror) above the door, or have a spiritual icon or protector right outside the front door.

Postpone remodeling in this area if possible. If not, see if you can “start” the remodeling project to the left or right rather than start in this direction. Or, you might want to place a 6-tube (hollow tubes) windchime inside the home in this area.
